Cross +Generational Faith Adventure: MISSION POSSIBLE

Tuesday, August 15th to Thursday, August 17th, 5:30-8:00pm. Characters from Bible stories have gone missing! Your mission, if you choose to accept it, is to find them.

Luckily, you've got God on your team, and for God all things are possible. Each evening begins with dinner! Then have fun learning Bible stories, deciphering secret codes, completing obstacle courses, serving others, and more! Families of all kinds are invited! Registration Fee = $10/Individual or $20/family. Scholarships are available! Registration is now open! Register at <http://tinyurl.com/MissionPossibleCGFA>.

Lawn Mowing and Weeding Help Needed

Please sign up in the Narthex if you can help cut the lawn this summer. Sign up for a week, or two, or three... The more people that take a week, the easier it is to maintain our beautiful property! Please see Steven Westfall or Chad Burks for details if needed. We also need help weeding around the building throughout the summer.

Tosa Cares News

Metcalfe's, at 68th and State in Wauwatosa, has teamed up with Tosa Cares to benefit both grocery shoppers and Tosa Cares. For the month of June, Metcalfe's will deduct 5% of your total grocery order as well as matching the total discount as a contribution to Tosa Cares. Everyone wins! A coupon can be found on the Tosa Cares' website, tosacares.org, or the flyer in the bulletin on Sunday.

The next distribution for the Tosa Cares Food Pantry will be Saturday, June 17th at Mt. Zion Church. The focus will be providing laundry detergent.
