Cross +Generational Sunday School

Please Join us next Sunday, January 21st at 9:15am for Sunday School for all ages!

Home Blessing Materials

The season of Epiphany offers an excellent time for gathering with family for a blessing of the home. Copies of the Home Blessing and a candle can be found outside the sanctuary for your own 2018 home blessing. See Tara Lee with any questions.

Tosa Cares Food Pantry

The next distribution will be Saturday, January 13th at Mt. Zion Church. The focus in addition to food, will warm clothing, particularly hats, gloves and scarves. We could use your help in packing and distributing food for a couple of hours that morning

Personal Care Items Needed

Working together, Tosa Cares and Lutheran World Relief are both looking for small unused/unopened personal care items, like the kind found at motels/hotels - specifically soap, shampoo, conditioner, lotion, other similar small items. We would appreciate if you could place these items in either the Tosa Cares or Lutheran World Relief collection points in the narthex and they will be divided between the two organizations. Thank you for your assistance. Any questions, please contact either Ginny Smeiska or Mary Felkner.

There was NO PACKER PARTY

at Serenity Inn on New Year's Eve!! The men decided they would rather have us come later to celebrate than to watch the Packers... Hmm. So we took some delicious pizzas and garlic bread from Papa Luigi's along with wonderful homemade taco dip from Tori Mallak and some chips, Bruce's famous popcorn, homemade cookies from Sue Thinner and soda from the Fox family. Thank you also to Nancy Langlas, Mary and Fred Meyer, Tom Jones, the Paul and Carla Meyer family, Jill and Barry Dahlgren, and Jill and Peter Grob, for a great party! We all had a wonderful time!
