Group Art Project for Lent

Lent is a time for us to reflect on the 'junk' in our lives that can keep us from seeing the true beauty of God's love. With that in mind, we invite you to participate in a Lenten art project that will turn junk mail into butterflies! We'll have a table set up between services and during Soup Suppers with help and instructions, and we'll use the resulting butterflies to decorate at Easter.

WELCA Spring Gathering

Saturday, April 14th at St. Luke's Lutheran in Greendale. The theme is Sing a Joyful Noise of Faith. The focus will be on Psalm 98 and the

Help Needed

Handy with a Tool? We're looking for people willing to help with small maintenance projects on an as needed basis. If you'd like to help MLC by sharing your fix-it skills, please contact Ronna at mlc.martinlutherchurch@gmail.com

Candy Donations Needed

The youth are looking for donations of Easter candy (some nut free) to be stuffed into plastic Easter eggs. These eggs and candy will be used for the Easter egg hunt during the breakfast Easter morning. Donations can be left in the office marked for the egg hunt or given to Seth Westfall.

Planned Giving

On March 22nd, from 12:00 – 1:30pm, Tim Knutson will lead a Planned Giving conversation on the topic of “Leaving a Legacy for Ministry”. This luncheon discussion will address end of life stewardship topics, such as how to plan for our families, how to leave a gift to the congregations and ministries that we love, and what details are most often overlooked. Tim is the Regional Gift Planner with the ELCA
